

THE VETERAN

CHARACTER

NAME

BACKGROUND

A 19-year-old soldier left shaken by their experiences.

Your squad was wiped out trying to defend a city in what remains of Earth from a hostile corporate takeover. CLAVEL Corporation (one of OBOL's competitors) shatter-bombed the building you were occupying and everyone else in your team died. You're convinced that you should have been killed. Maybe you were. Why you, and not them? Are they still watching over you?

You gave up and took what seemed like an easy job – caretaking an ancient freighter as it chugged through deep space. You've not been sleeping well, so the prospect of spending several months at a time in cryostasis seemed like an attractive prospect.
